While everyone know that the Earth is orbited by the moon, there is a whole science behind what it entails. There is also art. This is about the latter.

Planet and Moon Coloring For Grown Ups - Adult Coloring Page

Coloring in the pattern with marker, pen, crayon or brush. Whatever medium you use is the right medium. Try to make the moon and planet a difference color and use darker colors for the void of space in the background. But remember, most important is that you have FUN!
